BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Harold Weinberg (1922-2021) was an ophthalmologist and religious scholar. He moved to Clinton from Chicago in the 1950s and would live in Clinton for the next sixty years. In addition to his medical practice, Dr. Weinberg served on numerous public board, including the board of trustees of the library. In 2012, he donated his large library of comparative religion to the Vespasian Warner Public Library. Dr. Weinberg wrote a religion column for the Clinton Journal and organized public events on the topic of religion.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE
