BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

Lillian Kent (1886-1967) was a life-long resident of Clinton. She was a member of the Clinton Public Library Association before the Free Clinton Library was founded. She was a kindergarten teacher until 1910, when she was hired as a library assistant at the Vespasian Warner Library. She attended the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, where she studied library science. Kent became head librarian in 1914 and retired in 1966. During her time as head librarian, Kent served on the executive board of the Illinois Library Association, help form the DeWitt County War Records Committee (WWI), and worked with the Illinois State Library and other libraries to form the Rolling Prairie Library System. Kent was a member of the Clinton Presbyterian Church, P.E.O. Chapter B, and DeWitt Clinton Chapter of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution.
